

THE HOTEL GRANDE BRETAGNE ONCE AGAIN INCLUDED IN THE 2010 READERS' CHOICE AWARDS OF CONDÉ NAST TRAVELER MAGAZINE

Athens, 22nd November, 2010 – The Hotel Grande Bretagne has once again been included in the prestigious Condé Nast Traveler magazine 'Best Hotels List' as voted by their readers.

The well known publication of Condé Nast Traveler has selected the most luxurious and historical hotel of Athens as one of the best hotels, not only in Greece, but globally. Ranked among the top 25 hotels in the Southern Europe region - a region famous for its unique and refined hospitality - this distinction is a great honor for the hotel. Top in its league and the only hotel in Greece to be selected, the "Grande Bretagne" is committed to creating exceptional, indigenous experiences for its guests. The 23rd Readers' Choice Awards include 1,060 winners, selected by 25,916 readers who answered the 2010 Readers' Choice Survey, choosing the best cities, islands, hotels, and transportation in the world. The awards have now been published in the November 2010 issue of the famous magazine.

Ever since it opened its doors to receive the first visitor in 1874, the Grande Bretagne has been a point of reference in the social, political and economic life of Athens and, by extension, of the whole of Greece. The Hotel Grande Bretagne offers the best location in Athens with spectacular views to the Acropolis and sets a significant example in the international hotel business, offering pure luxury in service and living.
